The vehicle was almost similar to a T-34 tank except that it had a higher turret than that of the T-34s and another type of gun shield. It was equipped with a tank gun of about 1.5 meters length, and had an antenna rod which was mounted on the slanting part of the upper tank hull near the right front edge of the turret. [] believed [] to be of an old type of tank. 25X1

5. On 29 July, a troop train of 2 boxcars and 5 flatcars carrying 2 armored vehicles, 2 AT guns and truck [] was observed at the Felixdorf (O 48/X 35) railroad station. The train was without a locomotive. The soldiers observed in front of the boxcars wore red-bordered black epaulets. 25X1
